Fort de Chartres State Historic Site

1350 St. Rte. 155, Prairie du Rocher, IL 62277

Please join us as we celebrate the 250th anniversary of the 42nd Royal Highlanders (The Black Watch), led by Capt. Thomas Sterling, take possession of Fort de Chartres from St. Ange and his company of French Marines. This event is very special because it is the final 250th celebration of the French and Indian War.

There is a $10 registration fee per person to attend this event, children 12 and under are free. Upon arrival, you will be required to check-in at the registration booth, located in the pavilion by the visitor parking lot, to pick up your registration packet and get directions to your designated camping area. The registration packet will include an event medallion and keepsake booklet, a meal ticket for the catered dinner and dance Saturday evening, a site map, event schedule, and a local area map showing local attractions.

Please return this application by August 1st, 2015. Anyone registering after August 1st through August 31st will be required to pay a $5 late fee per person.

Since this is a French and Indian War reenactment, we are restricting participant portrayal time-frame to 1740-1790.

If registering as a group or unit, please use one application to register all attending.
